IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT PATNA
MA No.123 of 2004
BIJOY SINGH @ BIJOYEE SINGH & ORS
Versus
RAM LAKHAN DUBEY
---

15 9.7.2008 Heard learned counsel for the appellants.

No body appears for the respondent, although, the name of the learned counsel for the respondent appears in the daily cause list.

This appeal has been filed against the order dated 14.4.2004 passed by the learned Sub-Judge-VIII, Sasaram, in Title Suit No.441/2003, whereby and whereunder prayer for restraining the defendants by ad-interim injunction from creating any type of document for transfer of any portion of the suit land was refused.

WEB COPY NOT OFFICIAL

Having gone through the entire order passed by the learned court below and having considered the facts and circumstances, I do not find any merit in this appeal for interference with the impugned order.

The appeal, thus, stands dismissed.

However, efforts should be made by the trial court to dispose of the suit as early as possible. The defendants should also be restrained from creating any document for transfer of any portion of the suit land during the pendency of the suit, unless permission is sought from the trial court.

With the aforementioned directions and observations, this appeal is dismissed.

SKBOSE (Subash Chandra Jha)